REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 3rd March, 1916.)

War Office,
3rd March, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officer and Men:—

Second Lieutenant Alfred Victor Smith, 15th Battalion, The East Lancashire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For most conspicuous bravery. He was in the act of throwing a grenade when it slipped from his hand and fell to the bottom of the trench, close to several of our officers and men. He immediately shouted out a warning, and himself jumped clear and into safety; but, seeing that the officers and men were unable to get into cover, and knowing well that the grenade was due to explode, he returned without any hesitation and flung himself down on it. He was instantly killed by the explosion. His magnificent act of self sacrifice undoubtedly saved many lives.

1382 Private (Shoeing-Smith) Charles Hull, 21st Lancers.

For most conspicuous bravery. When under close fire of the enemy, who were within a few yards, he rescued Captain G. F. D. Learoyd, whose horse had been shot, by taking him up behind him and galloping into safety. Shoeing-Smith Hull acted entirely on his own initiative, and saved his officer's life at the imminent risk of his own.

No. 10210 Private Harry Christian, 2nd Battalion, Royal Lancaster Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. He was holding a crater with five or six men in front of our trenches. The enemy commenced a very heavy bombardment of the position with heavy "minenwerfer" bombs, forcing a temporary withdrawal.

When he found that three men were missing, Private Christian at once returned alone to the crater, and, although bombs were continually bursting actually on the edge of the crater, he found, dug out, and carried one by one into safety all three men, thereby undoubtedly saving their lives.

Later, he placed himself where he could see the bombs coming, and directed his comrades when and where to seek cover.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 30th March, 1916.)

War Office,
30th March, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men:—

Captain Arthur Forbes Gordon Kilby, late 2nd Battalion, The South Staffordshire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. Captain Kilby was specially selected, at his own request, and on account of the gallantry which he had previously displayed on many occasions, to attack with his company a strong enemy redoubt.

The company charged along the narrow low path, headed by Captain Kilby, who, though wounded at the outset, continued to lead his men right up to the enemy wire under a devastating machine-gun fire and a shower of bombs. Here he was shot down, but, although his foot had been blown off, he continued to cheer on his men and to use a rifle.

Captain Kilby has been missing since the date of the performance of this great act of valour, and his death has now to be presumed.

Temporary Lieutenant Eric Archibald McNair, 9th (Service) Battalion, The Royal Sussex Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. When the enemy exploded a mine, Lieutenant McNair and many men of two platoons were hoisted into the air, and many men were buried. But, though much shaken, he at once organised a party with a machine-gun to man the near edge of the crater and opened rapid fire on a large party of the enemy, who were advancing. The enemy were driven back, leaving many dead.

Lieutenant McNair then ran back for reinforcements, and sent to another unit for bombs, ammunition and tools to replace those buried.

The communication trench being blocked, he went across the open under heavy fire and led up the reinforcements the same way. His prompt and plucky action and example undoubtedly saved the situation.

No. 3/10133 Serjeant Arthur Frederick Saunders, 9th (Service) Battalion, The Suffolk Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. When his officer had been wounded in the attack he took charge of two machine-guns and a few men and, although severely wounded in the thigh, closely followed the last four charges of another battalion, and rendered every possible support. Later, when the remains of the battalion which he had been supporting had been forced to retire, he stuck to one of his guns, continued to give clear orders, and by continuous firing did his best to cover the retirement.

No. 6707 Lance-Corporal (Acting Corporal) William Richard Cotter, 6th Battalion, East Kent Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty. When his right leg had been blown off at the knee, and he had also been wounded in both arms, he made his way unaided for fifty yards to a crater, steadied the men who were holding it, controlled their fire, issued orders, and altered the disposition of his men to meet a fresh counter-attack by the enemy.

For two hours he held his position, and only allowed his wounds to be roughly dressed when the attack had quieted down.

He could not be moved back for fourteen hours, and during all this time had a cheery word for all who passed him. There is no doubt that his magnificent courage helped greatly to save a critical situation.

No. 9855 Private Henry Kenny, 1st Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. Private Kenny went out on six different occasions on one day under a very heavy shell, rifle and machine-gun fire, and each time succeeded in carrying to a place of safety a wounded man who had been lying in the open.

He was himself wounded in the neck whilst handing the last man over the parapet.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—VICTORIA CROSS—contd.

No. 5038 Private William Young, 8th (Service) Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery. On seeing that his Serjeant had been wounded he left his trench to attend to him under very heavy fire. The wounded Non-Commissioned Officer requested Private Young to get under cover, but he refused, and was almost immediately very seriously wounded by having both jaws shattered.

Notwithstanding his terrible injuries, Priva Young continued endeavouring to effect the rec upon which he had set his mind, and eventual succeeded with the aid of another soldier.

He then went unaided to the dressing statio where it was discovered that he had also be wounded by a rifle bullet in the chest.

The great fortitude, determination, courage, a devotion to duty displayed by this soldier co hardly be surpassed.

Admiralty, S.W.,
March 14th, 1916.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order:—

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Gordon Hamilton Seath, R.M.L.I.

Has acted as Naval Observation Officer at Helles since 1st May, 1915. Has shown great enterprise and resource in his duties under very heavy fire.

.. ..

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 15th March, 1916.)

War Office,
15th March, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field:—

Major George Melbourne Herbert, 2nd Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and determination. He led his battalion forward against heavy odds after his senior Officer had been severely wounded. On a later occasion he successfully covered a retirement with great skill and tenacity.

Major Henry Kelso Utterson, 2nd Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability. He led his men with marked coolness and skill when assaulting a strong redoubt. He behaved very gallantly in several engagements, during one of which he took command of his battalion when all the senior Officers had been killed or wounded, and led a successful charge resulting in the capture of the enemy's trenches.

Captain Shirley East Apthorp, 96th Berar Infantry, Indian Army.

For conspicuous gallantry. During a retirement, when it was found that two wounded men had been left behind, he immediately volunteered with a private to return some 300 yards to their rescue in face of a heavy fire from the advancing enemy. A serjeant and private were guarding the wounded men, and between them all they brought them back into safety.

Captain George de Grey, 2nd Battalion, The Norfolk Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry in the performance of his duties as Adjutant. He repeatedly crossed fire-swept zones in order to take orders, send up ammunition and direct reinforcements, until he was severely wounded. His cool bravery had twice previously been brought to notice.

Captain Andrew Henry Jukes, 9th Gurkha Rifles, Indian Army (Staff Captain, 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade).

For conspicuous good service and ability as a Staff Captain, Intelligence. Captain Jukes organised on two occasions enterprises against the enemy trenches, with marked success. His enterprise and careful training has resulted in most excellent work on the part of the Scout Captain Duncan Eberts MacIntyre, 26th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry when leading an assaulting party after personal reconnaissance. Having reached the enemy trenches, Captain MacIntyre acted with great promptness, and later showed great coolness and presence of mind in the selection of a suitable line of retirement.

Captain Thomas Anthony Stewart Swinburne, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry and continuous good work in action, notably when a mine was exploded by us in close proximity to the enemy. Directly our bombers had made good the near edge of crater, Captain Swinburne organised and controlled the digging parties to consolidate it. This work was carried out under heavy fire. Later he explored the far edge of the crater and descended the mine shaft, as it appeared that some of the enemy had been entombed by the explosion.

Captain Kenneth Churchill Craigie Taylor, 29th Canadian Infantry Battalion.

For conspicuous gallantry when leading bombers in a raid on enemy trenches. Although wounded, Captain Taylor jumped into the trench, and disposed of several of the enemy with bomb, revolver and bayonet. Later he withdrew his men most coolly, and assisted in taking back wounded.

Temporary Lieutenant Robert Uchtred Eyre Knox, 5th Battalion, The Suffolk Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry. When firing a "West" gun one of the grenades landed in our own parapet. Seeing that two of his men could not possibly get under cover, he rushed to pick up the grenade and throw it over the parapet. Just as he reached it, it exploded. Although by an extraordinary chance he was only slightly injured, it was a fine example of bravery. He has several times undertaken tasks requiring coolness and daring.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Richard Oliver Warder, "A" Battery, 78th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery (Special Reserve).

For conspicuous gallantry. During a heavy bombardment, when the other Officers and many men were temporarily injured, and three gun emplacements had been damaged, Lieutenant Warder, with one bombardier, continued to fire the fourth gun. He personally brought up ammunition from a cellar which was under fire.

REWARDS FOR SERVICE IN THE FIELD—DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER—contd.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 30th March, 1916)

War Office,
30th March, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field:—

Temporary Major William Arthur John Barker, 8th Battalion, The South Staffordshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When organising a counter-attack he was wounded in four places by a bomb, but continued to command his battalion throughout the three following days till it was relieved.

Major George Rowlandson Crosfield, 4th Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Volunteers (South Lancashire Regiment), Territorial Force (attached 2nd Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry and good service. He repeatedly visited the front line under heavy shell fire, and during the successful assault rallied and led back to the attack men who had suffered much from artillery fire. Previously he had made an excellent and daring reconnaissance of the enemy's position.

Temporary Captain John Wilfred Fisher, 10th Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry. When the enemy blew up a portion of the front trench he drove off their attack and skilfully organised the defence. He continued fighting long after he was wounded, and set a fine example to all around him.

Captain Widgwood William Gillum, "D" Battery, 79th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When in charge of four forward guns, although wounded in the face and much shaken by the explosion of a heavy shell, he continued to encourage and direct his men under a fierce concentrated fire until he was a second time wounded.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Arthur Witherby Gale (Reserve of Officers), 2nd Life Guards (Commanding Trench Mortars, 3rd Division).

For conspicuous good service. He took command of all the trench mortars concentrated for an attack, and made all arrangements. The fine work done by the trench mortars under his direction contributed largely to the success of the assault.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Alexander Arthur Francis Loch, 1st Battalion, The South Wales Borderers.

For conspicuous gallantry and determination. When the enemy had bombed our grenadiers out of a new post, he led a counter-attack up our sap, and with a machine-gun dispersed some thirty of the enemy who had collected. He was twice wounded, and the man by his side was killed, but he hung on till nightfall, and eventually made the post bullet-proof under very heavy fire.

Temporary Lieutenant Bernard Charles Mozley, 6th Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry. When the Officers of two companies had been killed or wounded he took command, and ably organised a withdrawal. Later, though badly wounded in the arm, he dragged into safety an Officer, who was also badly wounded, under heavy rifle and machine-gun fire.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Charles Lancelot Oliver Tayleur, 110th Battery, Royal Field Artillery.

For conspicuous gallantry and good service throughout the campaign, notably on one occasion when an enemy H.E. shell had ignited several of our own H.E. shells in a gun pit. Captain Tayleur rushed into the pit regardless of personal danger, and, by pouring buckets of water on the flames, put out the fire.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Donald Owen Tripp, 3rd Battalion (attached 1st), The Loyal North Lancashire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry and determination. When he and several of his bombers had been wounded during an enemy bomb attack, he tied his wounds hurriedly dressed, returned to his post, and with only a sergeant and two bombers kept the enemy at bay. When the two bombers were wounded he sent the sergeant back for reinforcements, and single-handed held up the enemy for twenty minutes till relieved.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Malcolm Henderson, 4th (Ross Highland) Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders (Ross-shire Buffs, The Duke of Albany's), Territorial Force, and Royal Flying Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry when, on photographic reconnaissance, his machine was struck by a shell from an enemy anti-aircraft gun. The shell passed through the nacelle of the machine, and took off his left leg just below the knee. In spite of this he succeeded in coming down from 7,000 feet, and landing 3,000 yards behind our line, thus saving the aeroplane and the life of the Observer.

Temporary Second Lieutenant Christopher Sanderson, 1st Battalion, Gordon Highlanders.

For conspicuous gallantry. During a successful assault he led the grenadiers and personally forced the enemy's machine-guns to retire. He then, by throwing bombs, put two enemy grenadier posts out of action and was himself slightly wounded. Later, when two enemy grenadiers appeared from behind, he went out into the open and shot them both. The capture of the enemy trench was largely due to his gallantry. He had previously distinguished himself as a serjeant.

Quartermaster and Honorary Lieutenant Edward Lyall, 2nd Northumbrian Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps, Territorial Force (attached 186th Tunnelling Company, Royal Engineers).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When a large camouflet was blown in by the enemy he hurried through a flooded gallery in the dark, and under heavy fire went for proto apparatus. Finding all the proto apparatus already in use, he hurried on and, although in an exhausted state descended a shaft without any apparatus, assisted in the rescue of an Officer, and then went further, rendered aid to two men, and made a most gallant effort to save two Officers.

MILITARY CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette, dated 15th March, 1916.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Acting Warrant Officer, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field:—

Captain Charles Stanley Barber, 3rd Field Company, Australian Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry. An opening having been driven into a hostile listening tunnel, Captain Barber, with a few men, crawled through on hands and knees surprised the Turkish sentry, and, by barricading a large portion of the hostile tunnel, materially strengthened the advanced post.

Captain Duncan Donald Heron Campbell, Royal Garrison Artillery (attached 112th Brigade Royal Field Artillery).

For conspicuous gallantry when directing the fire of his battery. After his observation post had been destroyed and the infantry near him had been withdrawn, he remained for four hours exposed to heavy fire, and successfully cut a wide lane in the enemy's wire.

Temporary Captain Silas Danby, 8th Battalion, The Duke of Wellington's (West Riding Regiment).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty, under heavy shell fire. He rallied stragglers and led them up to the support trenches. Later he returned, and again under heavy fire worked at the ammunition, bomb, and ration supply of his battalion.

Captain Harold Wyn Goldfrap, 103rd Mahratta Light Infantry, Indian Army.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He rallied and led forward men who were without leaders, and set a fine example. Later he ably assisted in the successful defence of a post which was heavily attacked.

Captain Herbert Richard Hall Ireland (Reserve of Officers), 3rd Battalion, The Prince of Wales's Leinster Regiment (attached 2nd Battalion, The Royal Irish Rifles).

For conspicuous gallantry under heavy shell fire during an attack. He prepared the point of entry into the enemy's trenches and organised the attacking parties with great coolness and resource.

Captain Walter Edward Thomson Morland, 1st Battalion, The Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry and resource in action when rallying and leading men up to the firing line. Later he assisted his Brigadier with great ability. His horse was shot under him. On another occasion he distinguished himself by marked courage.

Captain Frederick Gill Powell, 2nd Battalion, The Dorsetshire Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry on several occasions. He was brought to notice for good service during two engagements, during one of which he was severely wounded. During a later engagement he was dangerously wounded with his commanding officer when leading a charge at a critical moment in the assault on the enemy's redoubt.

Captain Andrew James Rendel, 81st Battery, 5th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery.
